LIVE VIRTUAL COMPLIMENTARY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP VIA  ZOOM

Attention Deficit Disorders & Other Attention Issues

Wednesday, February 11, 2026
8:30 - 11:30 AM or 12:00 - 3:00 PM
Barbara Piper, M.A. / TAP Consultant

"Attention!" Do you REALLY know what is required of students when you ask them to pay attention in class? What effects on learning and student behavior do attention difficulties present? This training will teach you what you need to know to be effective with students who exhibit behaviors such as inattention, distractibility, daydreaming, or specific difficulties related to the different diagnosis of attention disorders as identified in the DSM V. The following will be addressed in this training:

- ⊕ What goes on in the body neurologically to create and support attention
- ⊕ Current attention deficit disorders diagnosis types
- ⊕ The system of controls of attention
- ⊕ STRATEGIES, STRATEGIES, and more STRATEGIES to support students exhibiting attention issues whether the result of a diagnosis or not
- ⊕ Professional resources to support classroom instruction

Students exhibit attention issues in all aspects of school life. ALL school staff are invited to participate and benefit from the content of this training.

The PM session is the same as the AM session. A Survey will be posted in the zoom chat at the end of the presentation. You must complete the survey to receive a Certificate of Completion. You can join the PM session if you miss part of the AM session.
