LIVE VIRTUAL COMPLIMENTARY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

Cultivating Resilience in the Classroom with Social Emotional Learning

in Prek-5th grade

Wednesday April 21, 2021

9:00-11:30 AM or 1:00-3:30 PM

Presented by Lydia M. Sandoval M.A.
Technical Assistance Program (TAP) Consultant

Social Emotional Learning is based around teaching the “whole learner” and is essential for the development of your students’ self-management skills, self-awareness, decision making, social and relationship skills and student achievement. In this virtual webinar, participants will:

- ✚ Review SEL strategies and resources previously presented.
- ✚ Receive new free resources to teach SEL in the classroom.
- ✚ Build a plan to incorporate SEL into the everyday curriculum.

The same topic is presented in both AM and PM. Click to register for only one AM or PM Session. Thank you!
